Pilgrimage Itinerary (subject to change)

Monday, October 12:

Departure from the USA — Our pilgrimage begins as we depart together for Spain. Prepare our hearts for a beautiful journey of grace and inspiration.

Tuesday, October 13:

Welcome to Sevilla — Upon arrival in Sevilla, we'll settle into our accommodations and gather for our first Pilgrimage Mass followed by a Welcome Dinner.
Overnight: Sevilla

Wednesday, October 14:

Discovering the Roots of a Saint: Sevilla — Explore the vibrant city where St. Manuel was born and raised. Our day includes visits to:

- The majestic Sevilla Cathedral
- San Bartolomé Parish, where he was baptized
- Calle del Vidrio, his childhood street
- The Archbishop's Chapel – site of his Confirmation and Ordination
- Church of Mary Help of Christians – where he celebrated his first Mass
- The Seminary Chapel – where he studied and discerned his vocation

Overnight: Sevilla

Thursday, October 15:

Sites of Service: Palomares del Río & Huelva — We journey to Palomares del Río, the humble town where St. Manuel first experienced the pain of a neglected tabernacle—a moment that shaped his Eucharistic mission. Then we visit Huelva, where he founded several schools and served with zeal.

- San Pedro Church in Huelva
- Foundations and schools inspired by his educational vision

Overnight: Sevilla

Friday, October 16:

To the City of His Episcopacy: Málaga — We travel to Málaga (stopping in Ronda for a picturesque visit to a third-century aqueduct) where St. Manuel served as bishop. Highlights include:

- The Seminary he personally designed
- The Cathedral of Málaga
- The Bishop's Residence, from which he courageously fled during political unrest.

Our stay includes time for quiet reflection at a retreat house run by Religious Sisters founded by St. Manuel.

Saturday, October 17:

Beauty and Prayer: Granada — Our pilgrimage continues with a day trip to Granada, a city of stunning spiritual and historical landmarks:

- The awe-inspiring Alhambra Palace
- Granada Cathedral and the Royal Chapel of Ferdinand and Isabella
- The Albaicín neighborhood and San Nicolás overlook
- Local treat: Gelato from the famous Los Italianos

Overnight: Málaga

Sunday, October 18:

Off to the capital city of Spain: Madrid. But first, a visit to the breathtaking Mosque-Cathedral of Córdoba, a symbol of Spain's rich religious history.
Overnight: Madrid

Monday, October 19:

Explore the Heart of Spain: Madrid — We begin with Mass at the sisters' chapel followed by a city tour of Madrid accompanied by the sisters. This will include a visit to the Prado Museum and a stroll through Madrid's historic city center. Pilgrims may also opt to create their own adventure for this day.
Overnight: Madrid

Tuesday, October 20:

A Final Spiritual Encounter: Palencia — Travel to Palencia, where St. Manuel spent his final years. Visit:

- The Palencia Cathedral
- The inspiring St. Manuel González Museum
- The Trappist Monastery, a place of contemplation where we can pray alongside the Trappist monks in an atmosphere of prayer and rest.

Overnight: Madrid

Wednesday, October 21:

Farewell — Our pilgrimage concludes as we return home filled with grace and spiritual renewal.
